About the Owner

Homer Men and Boy's Store was founded by Roland Fragnoli, a poor immigrant from Italy. Through hard work and determination he was able to open the store at the age of 18 back in 1951. With a positive attitude and a little luck Roland was able to achieve great success in a very competitive market.

At 85 years old, Roland still frequently visits each of his stores to make sure that each one is running up to his standards.

"I ordered a pair of Columbia boots from here. The service was amazing. I had to have the shipment rerouted and Rob was so awesome. He quickly entered the re-route to UPS and I received my boots in time to enjoy them on my snow trip! I am so happy with the boots and so thankful for the excellent service I received!"
