Contribution Nation Newsletter

April Newsletter

In this issue:
- Event of the Month
- Top 3 Volunteer Opportunities
- Contact Information

Events in Ithaca, New York

Every month out newsletter features a series of different volunteer and internship opportunities for a city, town, or county in New York State. This months city is Ithaca, New York. A town filled with a rich culture; both in people and in biodiversity.

Event of the Month

The event of the month goes to the children’s Sciencenter in Ithaca, New York. This non-profit organization has been working with children from Kindergarten to eighth grade since 1983, with exhibits in fields such as Astronomy, health and wellness, sustainability, live animals, and the outdoors. Today the Sciencenter is recognized as a national non-profit company with over 1.5 million guests worldwide (http://www.sciencenter.org/).

Top 3 Volunteer Opportunities

1. Watch the Wild Volunteer with Nature Abounds
2. Adult Literacy Tutor with Tompkins Learning Partners
3. Walk Sponsorship with the Central Region Alzheimer's Association